Application deadline for students	October 31 st
Application Process	Students have to be nominated through the coordinator of their home university. Please send the students' name, date of birth, email address, field of study as well as study level (BA/MA). We will then send a link to our online application form directly to the students' email address. Students have to fill in the online application form; no further documents need to be sent in hardcopy.
Welcome Guide for Incoming Students	It contains all important information about a stay at the FHWien University of Applied Sciences in Vienna and is available on our website (can be found in the part "Incoming Students").
Course Offer	In general incoming students may choose among all programmes offered at FHWien (with minor restrictions). Students are free to select courses from different semesters (winter semester: semester 3 and 5 / summer semester: semester 2, 4 and 6). In principal the degree programmes are taught in German, but some courses are offered in English. In addition CIEM offers a variety of courses on a higher BA/lower MA level in the field of International Management. These courses are exclusively held in English and taught by international experts in the respective field. An English Course Guide with a complete list of courses offered in English language will be sent to the student after acceptance.
German Language Course	So as to participate in a German Language Course (6 ECTS) students need to take a German entry-level test, which will be sent to the partner universities prior to the exchange semester. No additional fees will be charged for the German Language Course.
Housing Service	Accommodation has to be organised by the students themselves. They can either book a room in one of the students' residences like ÖAD, ÖJAB,... or check the private market for available rooms. Further information can be found in the Welcome Guide.
Estimated Expenses per Semester (5 months)	Accommodation: ~ EUR 2.000 Food: ~ EUR 900 Public Transport: ~ EUR 130 for semester ticket Miscellaneous Expenses: ~ EUR 800 (depending on the student's lifestyle)
Further expenses	Fee for membership in the students' union, campus card and printing: EUR 45,-/ semester
Contact Erasmus Student Network	esn@fh-wien.ac.at Each incoming student will be contacted by his/her buddy prior to arrival, an Austrian student who will help the incoming especially during the first days after his/her arrival in Vienna.
